3. Cooperation with ISUOG

ENTOG started to cooperate with The International Society of Ultrasound in Obstetrics & Gynecology (ISUOG) this year. At the 29th World Congress on Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology in Berlin this year, Memorandum of Understanding between ENTOG and ISUOG has been signed to strengthen future collaboration between the two organizations.

International Society of Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology (ISUOG) promotes research and education in ultrasound field of obstetrics and gynecology. For Trainees, this includes a two-year free membership of ISUOG which includes free online subscription to ISUOG's journal, Ultrasound in Obstetrics & Gynecology, and access to other ISUOG educational resources. ISUOG offers trainee members a highly discounted rate for registration to its annual World Congress on Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynecology. ISUOG also runs education courses on specialised topics and the Basic Training program that provides trainees an introduction to essential topics in obstetrics and gynecology. If you want a free trainee membership, please get in touch with your ENTOG national representative. ENTOG will be proud to be able to offer discounts for ISUOG educational events for the ENTOG members - look out for more information on our social media!
